From the Amſt and Leid. Gaz. dated Dec. 2. 4. and 5.

Vienna, November 19.

THE Malecontents in Hungary continue to make great Preparations; nor are we backward on our ſide to make the proper diſpoſitions for preventing the Execution of their Deſigns, and even for acting vigorouſly againſt them. A Regiment of Dragoons lately rais'd by the Eſtates of the lower Auſtria, paſs'd in Review yeſterday before the Count de Breiner the Emperor's Commiſſary General of War; and are march'd to Hungary, as are alſo a certain Number of Recruits for the Cavalry already there. We have Advice, that the Batteries the Malecontents have rais'd againſt Neuheuſel have begun to play. Mr. Whitworth, the Engliſh Miniſter, will ſhortly ſet out from hence for Muſcovy with the Caracter of her Majeſty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary; he has already ſent away his Baggage. Orders are given for ſetting a certain Number of Men to work to ſtrengthen the Fortifications of Alba Regalis in the lower Hungary; that that Place may be put into a fit ſtate of Defence.

Vienna, Nov. 22. To day an Officer arriv'd here, with the ill News, that Newheuſel is ſurrendred to the Malecontents; the Garriſon not being numerous enough to defend it, nor having ſufficient Stores of Ammunition and Proviſions. They write from Moravia, that 15000 Malecontents are drawn together at Brunoff, and threaten to lay Siege to Trenſchin. 'Tis advis'd from Buda, that a Party of the Malecontents, being favour'd by a thick Fog, have ſeiz'd and carried off ſeveral Horſes and 200 Sheep out of the Neighbourhood of Peſt. The Troops which Field-Marſhal General Heiſter put into Quarters of Refreſhment, between Buda, Comorra, Raab, and Presburg, are drawing together; And when they are joyn'd by the Reinforcements that are impatiently expected from Bavaria and other Parts, we ſhall have an Army in Hungary of 25000 Men, which 'tis preſum'd will be able to give a good Account of the Malecontents. Mean time Orders are given for providing great Stores of War of all ſorts, and laying them up in Magazines at Presbourg and other convenient Places. Field-Marſhal General Heiſter is upon his Departure from hence for Hungary. General Ritſchau who was ſome time ſince taken Priſoner by the Malecontents near the River Waag, is ſet at Liberty by them upon Payment of 3000 Florins Ranſom.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Lemberg, Nov. 5. A contagious Diſtemper rages in this Town, and daily carries off a great many People. This Diſtemper is the Cauſe of our receiving little News from abroad, Correſpondence between us and ſeveral Towns being prohibited. Yet this Week we receiv'd a Poſt from Camieck, which in all likelyhood is the laſt we ſhall have from thence; by which we learn that Mazeppa General of the Coſſacks has put Troops into Lubar, Pawolocz, Piatki, and other Places; and that he is gone towards the Boryſthenes. The Palatin of Bels and his Family have left Brzeze, becauſe the Plague is got among the Inhabitants of that Place, and are retir'd to Rohatyn. The Plague is likewiſe in Tyſmiſnice; and at Grodek which lies 4 Leagues from this Place.

Warſaw, Nov. 14. Prince Wiſnowiski who commands the Army of Lithuania, which being joyn'd by Muſcovites is reinforc'd to 30000 Men, has defeated the Body of Troops under Prince Sapieha; but thoſe routed Troops have begun to draw together agen under the Cannon of Bausk, in order to march and joyn the Swedes that are in Courland. The Muſcovites are repairing the Fortifications of Bierzen, which were demoliſh'd by the Swedes; and we have Advice, (but it ſeems to need Confirmation,) that the Czar is marching with 70000 Men towards Riga, to lay Siege to it: We have had no Poſt this Week from Poſnania nor Caliz, ſo that we know not what has paſs'd in that Part of the Country. Correſpondence with Lemberg is prohibited, becauſe the Plague is riſe there.

Venice, Nov. 21. Upon Advice that the Plague rages in Lemberg, the chief Town of the Poliſh Ruſſia, the Magiſtracy della Sanita have forbid all Correſpondence with the Provinces of Ruſſia, Volhinia, Podlochia, and others that are reported or ſuſpected to be infected with the Plague: They have likewiſe order'd the Mails that ſhall come from Vienna to be brought to them; that the Letters from Poland which may be in thoſe Mails may be purified before they are diſtributed. The 18th Inſtant the Reſident of Mantua notified to our Regents the Marriage of the Duke his Maſter with the French Princeſs of Elbœuf.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 5.

Dreſden, Nov. 27. We have receiv'd no Letters from the Court of King Auguſtus of Poland in 8 days paſt; But from Breſlau we have Advice, that his Majeſty was ſtill at Cracow the 16th inſtant; that Prince Lubomirski, great General of the Army of the Crown, made his Submiſſion to the King the 13th of this Month, and was very favourably receiv'd by his Majeſty; And theſe Advices add, that he has brought with him to the Aſſiſtance of his ſaid Poliſh Majeſty 12000 Men. The Council of Senators aſſembled at Cracow continue to ſit, and we expect ſhortly to hear what Reſolutions they will take for the publick Good. 'Tis reported his Poliſh Majeſty will order an Inquiry to be made into the Conduct of our Horſe in the laſt Action near Guraw, where they left the Infantry to fight the Swedes by themſelves. The Swedes are gone into Quarters in Great Poland, for 3 or 4 Weeks Refreſhment; but the King of Sweden is gone with ſome Horſe to Pruſſia, whence perhaps he will go to Courland, to make Head againſt the Muſcovites who threaten an Invaſion on that ſide. We have an Account that the Swedes loſt 1500 Men in the Fight near Guraw, among them the Generals Stuart and Ritterſtrohm. And 'tis reported General Levenhaupt and the Count of Bugſas were dangerouſly wounded, together with 1600 Men, Officers and Soldiers; So that they cannot boaſt of having gain'd any Advantage. But the Swedes met with 1200 Saxons, Muſcovites, and Coſſacks, in another part of the Country near the Oder; ſome of whom they kill'd, and took the reſt, with ſome pieces of Artillery and ſome Baggage. There is at preſent in the Province of Luſatia, a great Number of Troops, viz. Saxons, Poles, Lithuanians, Muſcovites, Coſſacks, &c. They are quarter'd up and down in the Country, to which they are ſo burthenſome, that we hourly expect a new Regulation will be publiſh'd for repreſſing the Diſorders they commit.

Paris, Nov. 24. and 28. We have receiv'd Advice, that the Duke of Mantua and the Princeſs d'Elbœuf were publickly married at Tortona the 8th Inſtant. The new Dutcheſs of Mantua is Siſter to the Princeſs of Vaudemont, by the Father's ſide, who was married three times. This Dutcheſs and the Dutcheſs Dowager of Elbœuf her Mother, ran a great Riſque in paſſing by Sea from Antibes to Genoa. For 2 Engliſh Frigates, that were in the Port of Genoa, having Information that 4 French Galleys were coming in thither with thoſe 2 Ladies, they put out and attack'd the Galleys within a Mile of the Port. After ſome Diſcharges of Cannon on both ſides, the Chevalier de Roannez, Commadore of the Gallys, order'd the Rowers to ply their Oars with all their Strength to get into the Port; and put the 2 Ladies with their Attendance into a Boat; the Frigates fir'd at it, and 7 or 8 ſhot flew over the Ladies Heads; The Chevalier de Roannez kept the Frigates in play and ſhelter'd the Boat till ſhe got ſafe into the Port.

An Arret has been publiſh'd here importing, 'That 'the King being inform'd the Butchers of the Towns 'of Troyes and Chalons, had riſen tumultuouſly, 'committed Diſorders, and refus'd to pay to the newly 'conſtituted Inſpectors of the Shambles the Impoſts charg'd upon them; his Majeſty to prevent the 'Dangerous Conſequences of the like Inſurrections, 'had order'd the Sieur d'Harrouy's Intendant of the 'Generality in which thoſe 2 Towns are ſituate, to 'take Informations of the Diſorders committed by 'the ſaid Butchers, to try them for the ſame, and 'puniſh them according to their Deſerts.

The Gendarmerie that ſerv'd in Germany this Campaign return'd hither the 14th. Moſt of them being diſmounted, they were forc'd to come in Waggons. Horſes are very ſcarce here and in all Parts of the Kingdom; by reaſon all that could be found, in any Degree fit for Service, have been taken up for the Army, to ſupply in part the great Loſs we have ſuffer'd in 3 Months paſt. We are aſſur'd there is a Morrality among the Cavalry in Italy, which has oblig'd the Duke of Vendome and alſo the Grand Prior to ſend all their Horſe into Quarters of Refreſhment, tho' it be a Prejudice to the Service.
